Barco

Barco is situated a stone's throw from the buzz of the tennis courts, stables, restaurants and bar and a short walk to the Reschio Hotel. It has a magnificent view of both the Castello di Reschio and Castello di Sorbello in Tuscany.

The Reschio Estate

It is a joy to share the wilderness that is and always was, Reschio. For more than a millennium, the land was farmed, leaving spaces for indigenous flowers, forests and wild life to establish their own fiefdoms. Today, more than ever, we continue to honour those traditions and have maintained the ecological balance that means our lakes have pure water for swimming and fishing. Reschio was and will always be a safe, yet wild space that we share with those that come to stay for a week or maybe for years in a house of their own. Reschio, nature's paradise, remains for now and for future generations.

Enjoy a stroll along avenues of cypresses, explore the castle's chapels, savour our orto and taste freshly picked delicacies. Maybe linger in the Equestrian Centre to watch the Spanish horses practising their quick step before dropping in for lunch at Ristorante Alle Scuderie and Bar Centrale. Dive into the estate's lake and have a picnic in the cabin. Challenge the tennis coach at the Astroturf courts. Be tempted to the Reschio Hotel for drinks in the Palm Court or dine in the Ristorante Al Castello at sunset, a magical time when the Etruscan hills reveal their secrets.

Barco

A formal courtyard forms the heart of Barco around which the living accommodation is situated. This splendid 6-bedroom property is located within walking distance of the Reschio Hotel with its restaurants and bars as well as the stables and tennis courts.

The main house has well-appointed living areas, an extensive master area and a further en-suite bedroom. A covered dining area links the main house to further accommodation, with three en-suite bedrooms and two sets of bunk beds for additional sleeping places for children.

The spacious self-contained one-bedroom guest cottage, Barcolino completes the accommodation.

An 18 x 4.5 metre swimming pool is a few steps down from the dining terraces and next to the pool is a custom-built spa bath. A gazebo covered viewing platform in the garden provides a breathtaking 360° panorama that includes a 'close up' of not one but two castles, that of Castello di Reschio and of Sorbello across the valley in Tuscany.
